By Special Favor.—He was a young and smart-looking Scots clergyman, and was to preach a "trial" sermon in a strange church. Fearing that his hair might be disarranged or that he might have a smudge on his face, he quietly and significantly said to the headliners, there being no mirror in the vestry, "John, could you get me a glass?" John disappeared, and after a few minutes returned with something under his coat which, to the astonishment of the divine, he produced in the form of a bottle with a gilt of whisky in it, saying,
"Ye mauna let on about it, meenister, for I got it as a special favor; and I vowna ha'e got it aye if I hadna told them it was for you."—Tattler.

Hydrophobia, which has practically been stamped out in England, still flourishes in most continental countries. Germany tops the list with an annual average of 2582 dogs and cats destroyed for this reason, while the figure of France are 2263. In Belgium, Switzerland and Holland cases of hydrophobia are rare, the total of all three countries combined being under fifty.

A curious thing noticed at once by visitors to Moscow in the absence of whips among the cab drivers. There is a law prohibiting their use. There is not a single whip in use in Moscow.
